

We're committed to Running Right because it's the right thing to do.

Alpha Natural Resources is one of the largest suppliers of coal in America. Alpha also is one of Appalachia's most rapidly growing companies, with more than 14,000 people whose safety comes above all else. We call it "Running Right," because when every one does his or her job right, every one goes home safe at night.

Running Right also means being a true partner in the community and taking care of the environment.

At Alpha, we know that Running Right shows in everything we do - every day.

We power the world through the energy of our people.

We're committed to Running Right because it's the right thing to do.

Alpha Natural Resources is one of the largest suppliers of coal in America. Alpha also is one of Appalachia's most rapidly growing companies, with more than 14,000 people whose safety comes above all else. We call it "Running Right," because when every one does his or her job right, every one goes home safe at night.

At Alpha, we know that Running Right shows in everything we do - every day.

We power the world through the energy of our people.

We're committed to Running Right because it's the right thing to do.

Alpha Natural Resources is one of the largest suppliers of coal in America. Alpha also is one of Appalachia's most rapidly growing companies, with more than 14,000 people whose safety comes above all else. We call it "Running Right," because when every one does his or her job right, every one goes home safe at night.

At Alpha, we know that Running Right shows in everything we do - every day.

We power the world through the energy of our people.
