Sorensen Institute for Political Leadership

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

Through a variety of programs—for high school and college leaders to first-time political candidates and influential business and community leaders—the Sorensen Institute has established itself as a powerful and effective force for restoring public confidence in our political system.

At the heart of every Sorensen program are three central themes: ethics in public service, the power of bipartisanship, and a concentrated study of public policy issues. Each program provides an opportunity for leaders to develop meaningful relationships with Virginians of differing political viewpoints who hail from every region of the Commonwealth.

Financial aid and scholarships are available.

*"This organization is incredibly important.
Sorensen has become
the model of bipartisan leadership training for the nation."*

Senator Mark Warner

*"The Sorensen Institute is a wonderful asset to the Commonwealth. In my experience with the program, the ideals of civility, respect for those who hold different views, rigorous examination of the facts, and common ground are elevated. I seek to advance these principles each day I have the privilege to serve, and I am convinced that I am a better Representative to VA-02
from participating in this remarkable program."*

Congressman Scott Rigell

This Week IN RICHMOND

Blue Ridge  PBS

Tune in for the latest Richmond News from host David Bailey and Virginia Elected officials.

This Week in Richmond, hosted by Virginia Capitol veteran David Bailey, is the only weekly TV series about Virginia politics and issues. The series features discussions with Virginia newsmakers, including elected officials and top administrators. Many episodes originate from the Capitol in Richmond, with the rest from the Blue Ridge PBS studio in Roanoke.

In addition to WBRA (Roanoke), This Week in Richmond is seen on WVPT (Harrisonburg), WCVE (Richmond), WHTJ (Charlottesville), WHRO (Norfolk), and on TV-48 Norfolk's Neighborhood Network.

Programs are available on demand at blueridgepbs.org/index.php/videos/local-productions/this-week-in-richmond.

AARP is Fighting for All Virginia Families

With more than one million members in Virginia, AARP is fighting for all Virginians age 50+, and their families, at the General Assembly. Our top priority for the 2014 General Assembly session is to ensure that Virginia takes advantage of enhanced federal funding to provide Medicaid coverage for the 400,000 Virginians who are in need of affordable care.

We will also work to improve economic security as well as health and supportive services for older Virginians by supporting legislation that will:

- Strengthen the law to allow victims of financial exploitation to recover assets from their abusers.
- Close a loophole that allows predatory lenders to trap financially vulnerable Virginians in a cycle of debt.
- Enhance home and community based services.
- Address policy barriers to combat hunger and food insecurity.
- Provide consumer protections to ensure Virginians do not lose their long term care insurance.

intelligent illuminations

Innovative. Efficient. Smart.

Intelligent Illuminations is the industry leader of smart, cost-effective, lighting product solutions. For 15 years we have worked to revolutionize roadway and area lighting with the only secure, point-to-point wireless solution that enables customers to efficiently monitor and control street lights from a computer or mobile device.

iLums is a customized solution that enables state and local governments, utilities, lighting manufacturers, private communities, universities, hospitals – anyone responsible for roadway or area lighting infrastructure to:

- Monitor and control individual lights
- Comply with lighting regulations and standards
- Generate significant savings in operating costs and assess on-going efficiencies
- Protect infrastructure investments
- Support existing and future infrastructure and technology upgrades, including LED conversions

Smart grid initiatives should start with smart street and area lights and Intelligent Illuminations' solutions.

Innovative, Efficient, Smart.

Effective Communication Techniques

Making a visit

Seeing your legislators between sessions when they are in their districts will work to your benefit. Their schedules are always hectic during the session. Tips for a visit in either location include the following:

Be prepared to state your views clearly.

Have appropriate materials to leave.

Be on time.

Be friendly, positive and constructive.

Be specific about desired action.

Be brief! Be brief! Be brief!

Writing an e-mail or letter

1. Write to your delegate and senator; legislators want to know what their constituents think. Most are not interested in the concerns of people from other areas of the state.
2. If you send an email, indicate in the subject line that you are a constituent and give your name and address.
3. Keep each letter brief. Try to limit the subject matter to a single issue.
4. Be positive. Avoid criticism. If possible, commend the legislator on some recent action, vote, or public speech.
5. Come to the point quickly, clearly and concisely. Whenever possible give a bill number or title.
6. Tell why you hold a particular position. If an organization that you belong to has taken action on the issue, refer to their decision.
7. Raise question. A well formulated question can many times get a personal response.
8. Point out shortcomings of a particular bill. Offer suggestions for correcting them.
9. Make your letter timely. Letters to members of the committee considering the bill are the most important.
10. Spell names correctly, write legibly, use correct salutations.

Using the telephone

1. Be well informed and prepared.
2. Call at a strategic time; for example, just before a vote in committee.
3. Always be calm and courteous; venting your anger will not help you in your efforts.
4. If you have written or visited with the legislator, remind him or her of that contact.
5. If the legislator is not available, speak with the legislative assistant.
