Through a variety of programs—for high school and college leaders to first-time political candidates and influential business and community leaders—the Sorensen Institute has established itself as a powerful and effective force for restoring public confidence in our political system.

At the heart of every Sorensen program are three central themes: ethics in public service, the power of bipartisanship, and a concentrated study of public policy issues. Each program provides an opportunity for leaders to develop meaningful relationships with Virginians of differing political viewpoints who hail from every region of the Commonwealth.

"The Sorensen Institute is an investment in yourself that is an invaluable milestone for any person who has what it takes to be a public servant. My experience started out as just a leadership program, but became a foundation of principles that will continue to guide me in all I do as I strive to be the best leader for the people I serve. Now that I am a graduate of the PLP, I will continue to enjoy the strong relationships with my classmates and reflect on the meaningful experiences that will last a lifetime."

Lachrece Aird
PLP 2015

"The Sorensen Candidate Training Program was a game-changer for me. My experience not only helped to clarify my reasons for running for the House of Delegates, but the campaign resources and strategies presented gave me the tools I needed to launch a successful campaign. The Sorensen philosophy of "Trust, Civility and Respect in Politics" was interwoven in every aspect of my training and became the model for my approach to serving as a Delegate."

L. Kaye Kory
CTP Winter 2009

"Once upon a time, politics was viewed as a noble profession. Sorensen reminds us that it is and can be again."

Jennifer McClellan,
